Winter 2017

2017 RESIDENT APPRECIATION WEEK & ANNUAL MEETING BALLOTING!

Meet Your 2017 Board of Directors!

What is the Franklin Co-op Board of Directors?

The Franklin Co-op board of directors is a group of residents who are elected from the general co-op membership to govern the co-op. Every year the co-op holds the Annual General Meeting which is where the election takes place. Per the co-op's bylaws there are a maximum of 16 board seats. This year there were four nominations to the board prior to the meeting and two nominations at the annual meeting. All six board members were officially elected at the annual meeting.

There are still open seats on the board! If any residents are interested in joining the board (or just seeing what it's all about), come to a board meeting! There are many different ways to be involved with the co-op.

Annual Meeting Recap

At the annual meeting, residents and the board discussed ideas for 2017, including: spring neighborhood cleanup, more resident engagement, continued 4H relationship & funding, co-op movie nights, fire alarm procedures, smoking policies, building security, and more.
