2017 MARCY PARK CO-OP ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Meet Your 2017 Board of Directors!

With over 20% of the co-op membership voting remotely, in addition to over 10% in attendance at the Annual General Meeting, there was officially quorum for the meeting! This means the 2017 board of directors election is official and the board can get to work right away on behalf of the Marcy Park Co-op.

What is the Marcy Park Co-op Board of Directors?

The Marcy Park Co-op board of directors is a group of residents who are elected from the general co-op membership to govern the co-op. Every year the co-op holds the Annual General Meeting which is where the election takes place. Per the co-op's bylaws there are a maximum of 16 board seats. This year there were 13 nominations to the board prior to the meeting and three at the annual meeting. All 16 board members were officially elected at the meeting.

Annual General Meeting Recap

Co-op highlights from 2016 include: added TV and internet to board room, more recycling bins, repainted parking lot and added better signs, fewer parking problems, sidewalk built between buildings, better tracking of expenditures, more turnout at co-op events (and held more events), better communication between Riverton and the board, purchased a fire pit, started co-op website/Google group, and more!

Co-op plans for 2017: increase outdoor bike storage, making board room more accessible, more events and increased turnout, and more!
